Sen. Mark Schauer Receives Recognition for Effectiveness

LANSING--In a recent poll, Sen. Mark Schauer (D-Jackson and Calhoun Counties) was named one of the most effective state legislators. The survey conducted by Michigan Information and Research Service (MIRS), named Schauer one of the top 10 state senators.

Responding to the honor, Schauer said, "I try to do good work. I try to do things in the Senate that will help make the daily lives of the people of my district and the people of Michigan better. I take pride in serving my constituents. The real reward is creating successfully public policy, and acknowledgment like this from people I work with everyday really makes me feel like I'm accomplishing that."

The survey questioned 2000 "Lansing insiders" and received 320 responses. They used a ranking system to award points both for "Most Effective" and "Least Effective" legislator. "Least Effective" points were subtracted from "Most Effective" points.

"I take pride in the work I do, and I appreciate that those who work with me on a daily basis have taken notice. I feel privileged to be involved in the process."
